Good Afternoon,

Thank you! I hope you enjoyed your holiday season as well.

At present, the Commission has not acted on the application of Swamp Rabbit Moving at a business meeting. Therefore, no directive or order has been issued. Unfortunately, I also have no specific date upon which a directive or order will be issued. For your information, an application - such as yours - will appear as an item on a Commission business meeting prior to a directive being issued. An order is issued at a later date following the commission meeting/directive.

You can stay in the loop regarding upcoming business meetings and associated agendas by visiting this site: <https://dms.psc.sc.gov/Web/Agendas>. However, it is my understanding that all parties to this docket will receive a notification when the application is up for consideration at the meeting, but please use the link as a backup.
